SENATE COMMITTEES NAMED

The Senate met in afternoon session at 2 o'clock yesterday with every member present in town in his place. After a short wait, Secretary A. G. Hawes appeared on the scene with four messages from the Governor relating to appointments and the recent developments in various of the offices of the Government. These messages are given in full elsewhere. The first two were interpreted into Hawaiian by interpreter John E. Hush, but the last two, being very long, were not interpreted.

Senator J. T. Brown of Hilo made a motion to the effect that all the messages be translated and printed in order that the Hawaiians might be able to understand fully the contents thereof. There should also be copies in English struck off, as it was not possible to take in all of the messages just from hearing them read.

Senator Baldwin was against having the messages printed, as such a course would take too long. He favored beginning work at once, and said that while this work was in progress he had no particular objection to having the messages translated and printed if such was the desire of the Senate. As the work progressed, each step could be explained to the Hawaiians.

Senator Kalaauokalani, in seconding the motion of Senator J. T. Brown to have the messages translated, stating that this was necessary in order that there might be complete understanding on the part of the Hawaiian members. Thirty or forty copies would do.

Senator Baldwin insisted that speed was necessary. The messages had come from the Governor and investigation of the various offices under the Government had been invited. It would not do to waste any time.

The chair said he saw no reason for further discussion on the matter, as it was very well understood. He thereupon put the motion of Senator J. T. Brown, which was lost.

Senator Baldwin moved that six committees of three each be appointed by the chair for the purpose of investigating the various offices under the Government. Senator Dickey amended this motion to the effect that the investigation take place in only those departments mentioned in the messages of the Governor. It was pointed out to the Maui Senator that the Governor had invited an investigation of all the departments under the Government. The amendment of Senator Dickey was not seconded.

Senator Kalaauokalani expressed it as his opinion that everything should be investigated. That was the only way to conduct the business.

Senator Isenberg stated that, for the benefit of the Hawaiian members of the Senate who had not heard the last two messages, he would move that these be interpreted.

Senator Kalaauokalani answered that there was no use to attempt such a thing. The Hawaiian members had asked that the messages be translated and printed, but as that had not been allowed, there was no use in having the messages interpreted into Hawaiian. They would go in one ear and out of the other. The motion of Senator Isenberg was not put.

The motion of Senator Baldwin that the chair proceed to the appointment of committees was put and carried, and the chair asked for a few minutes during which to select the men for the work. The Senate thereupon took a recess for ten minutes.

When the Senate was called to order again, the chair announced the following committee:

Auditor's office—C. H. Dickey, S. W. Wilcox and D. Kalaauokalani.

Public Works Department—H. P. Baldwin, J. D. Paris and P. P. Woods.

Treasurer's office—W. C. Achi, D. P. R. Isenberg and S. E. Kalua.

Public Lands office—L. L. McCandless, D. P. R. Isenberg and J. B. Kahohi.

Attorney General's office—Cecil Brown, W. C. Achi and J. T. Brown.

Public Instruction department—S. W. Wilcox, J. D. Paris and P. P. Woods.

Senator Achi moved that the messages of the Governor relating to appointments be taken up at once and acted on. This was seconded by Senator Isenberg, but upon motion of Senator Kalaauokalani this matter was voted postponed until Tuesday next.

At this point, Senator Baldwin stated that he had objected to the translation and printing of the messages of the Governor because he had thought that this work would take too long. He would now move that the messages be translated and typewritten. This motion was seconded by Senator Achi.

The Home Rulers had heard out in the hallway during the recess of ten minutes that the matter was to be reconsidered, some of the Republican members being free to express such an opinion. They were therefore prepared for what was coming, and when the motion was put by the chair, not a hand on the Home Rule side went up.

When the votes on the side of "contrary minded" were called for, the result was the same. However, the motion carried and the messages were ordered translated and typewritten.

Senator Achi moved that a committee on printing be appointed. Senator Baldwin suggested that since Senator Achi had made the motion, he should be made chairman of the committee. The chair followed this suggestion and when the motion had carried, appointed the following printing committee: Senators Achi, Dickey and Kalua.

Senator Baldwin moved that a committee of three on accounts be appointed since the Senate had gone into the matter of running up bills. He, however, suggested that someone else be appointed chairman of the committee. While he would not refuse to undertake the work if appointed, still he would state candidly that he hadn't the time to attend to it. The motion carried and the chair appointed the following committee: Senators Isenberg, Paris and Woods.

On motion of Senator McCandless, the messages of the Governor were referred to the printing committee to be returned at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

At this point, the Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock Saturday forenoon.

Why do Bookkeepers, Stenographers, Seamstresses, and people who use their eyes a great deal for close work SUFFER WITH NEUROUS HEADACHES?

A great deal of space could be devoted to this subject, but we feel that a word to the wise is sufficient, and therefore we simply state plain FACTS. The eye in its effort to give good vision through the process of accommodation, uses an over amount of nerve supply and by reflex headaches result.

It costs you nothing but a little of your own time to find out about your eyes. We invite you to call and consult our Optician.
